WHAT TO EAT THIS MONTH

A roundup of new eateries, menus and dishes on the block.

GINETT RESTAURANT & WINE BAR

THE DRAW: $6 glasses of wine, all day, every day? Yes, please! This new bistro-style wine bar serves drinks at happy hour prices all day long and two-course lunches at a very affordable $18. For that price, you'll get wholesome eats like a Tostada Chicken Salad, pastas and sandwiches. The options are heartier at dinner, with bistro classics like freshly shucked Fine de Claire oysters, Pate En Croute (black pork terrine and foie gras wrapped in puff pastry), and charcoal-grilled meats.

TRIVIA: Here, you'll find possibly the most affordable list of French wines in the city. The Chateau Tour Bicheau 2013 Merlot, for example, goes for just $12 per glass.

ADDRESS: Hotel G Singapore, 200 Middle Road. Tel: 6809-7989. Mon to Sun, 6am till late. www.facebook.com/ginettssingapore
